Re: Case # 99-4004, Letter of Concern
Order in Other than a Contested Case

Dear Dr. Owen,

The Oregon Board of Chiropractic Examiners reviewed the above complaint and your response at their May 20, 1999 meeting. After considering all of the information, the Board voted to take no disciplinary action, but rather to notify you by this letter of its concern regarding your advertisements.

The Oregon Doctor's Title Act (OAR 676.110) the Board's Administrative rules (OAR 811-015-0045 (3) and (4). require all that advertisements contain a statement that you are a "chiropractor" or "chiropractic physician." You indicated that you are taking all necessary steps to bring your advertising into compliance with Oregon law.

The Board acknowledges your willingness to correct your current advertising and your commitment to stay in compliance with the Oregon Doctor's Title Act in all future advertising.

Sincerely,

Dave McTeague
Executive Director
