Dear Dr. Stoltz:

Your license expired as of August 31, 1990 (see ORS 684.090) and you should not be practicing without a license.

Insurance carriers have been notified of those licensees who have expired licenses.

The Board of Examiners has received complaints from insurance carriers regarding doctors who have expired licenses and are treating patients and charging insurance companies. Enclosed is a complaint against you filed with this office.

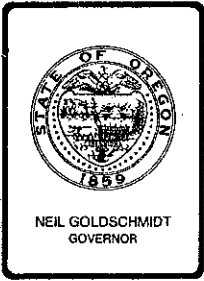

The Board of Examiners is under obligation to report to the District Attorney any and all doctors who are practicing with a expired license.

Please be alerted to the legal ramifications of practicing without a license.

Cordially,

William D. Stoltz, D.C.

Dear Dr. Stoltz:

Our records show that you have not come into compliance regarding the renewing of your license.

Your payment of $160 was received in this office August 29, 1990 and the continuing education hours received September 14, 1990. However, the deadline for receiving both the continuing education hours and payment was August 31, 1990. Since the continuing education hours were not received by the deadline, a penalty of one-half ($80) the licensing fee was assessed, see ORS 684.090.

Our records show that the $80 penalty has not been paid. Your license cannot be issued until the penalty is paid. Therefore, your license is expired and you must cease and desist from practicing chiropractic in the State of Oregon until you comply with the law.
